Items noted below were observed during the course of this inspection. Any violations observed must be corrected. Failure to correct the listed violation(s) prior to the designated compliance date may necessitate a reinspection at an additional fee.

OPENING COMMENTS

This reinspection is at the request of the manager N. Nguyen in response to a permit suspension on 12/3/18 for rodent activity in multiple areas in the facility.

At the time of the inspection, all evidence of rodent activity had been eliminated and the affected areas were cleaned and sanitized.

The health permit is hereby reinstated.

A one week reinspection has been scheduled to verify rodent activity has been eliminated.

Did you know that effective January 1, 2018, the California Health and Safety Code was amended to make it easier for food facilities to donate food? Please consider donating your excess food/product to a local food bank, pantry, or soup kitchen. As a good faith food donor, you are protected from civil and criminal liability if the food product later causes harm to its recipient, unless the injury is a direct result of your gross negligence or intentional misconduct in the preparation or handling of the donated food. See Section 1714.25 of the Civil Code and Sections 114432 to 114434, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code. For more information, please visit ocfoodinfo.com or wastenotoc.org.
