Items noted below were observed during the course of this inspection. Any violations observed must be corrected. Failure to correct the listed violation(s) prior to the designated compliance date may necessitate a reinspection at an additional fee.

OPENING COMMENTS

The purpose of this visit was at the request of the operator to conduct a reinspection after the facility was closed due to cockroach activity. The documentation for the pest control service was provided for review. No live cockroach activity was observed during the time of the inspection and all violations noted on the routine inspection report were observed to be corrected on this date. A follow-up visit is scheduled in two weeks to ensure that no further activity is observed. The permit has been reinstated and the facility is allowed to resume business.

Did you know that effective January 1, 2018, the California Health and Safety Code was amended to make it easier for food facilities to donate food? Please consider donating your excess food/product to a local food bank, pantry, or soup kitchen. As a good faith food donor, you are protected from civil and criminal liability if the food product later causes harm to its recipient, unless the injury is a direct result of your gross negligence or intentional misconduct in the preparation or handling of the donated food. See Section 1714.25 of the Civil Code and Sections 114432 to 114434, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code. REINSPECTION FEES:

Fees are assessed for second or greater reinspections and Notices of Violations. The purpose of these fees is to shift costs away from compliant operators and impose fees on those facilities that fail to readily comply with the applicable laws and regulations. The amount of the fee is to cover all of the cost associated with the service. For the most current fees, please refer to <http://ohealthinfo.com/eh/home/fees> or call (714) 433-6000.
